

Idaho Republican Presidential Preference Caucus March 2, 2024 - 12pm MST/11am PST

Information Sheet for Republican Voters

As your Precinct Committeeman for our precinct, I am providing you with this information on the upcoming Presidential Caucus. If you need any information, please email or call me.

Name: _____ Phone: _____
Email: _____

Why the Caucus instead of a primary?

The legislature removed the March bond and levy election, also removing the March Presidential Preference Primary. The party was left to solve the problem and the Caucus gives the greatest number of voters the ability to participate.

Who can vote?

Anyone who was registered to vote in Idaho by December 31, 2023 and affiliated with the Republican Party. There is a special exception for those turning 18 between January 1 and March 2 in 2024.

Where do we vote?

The State party will send a card to every registered Republican household in February confirming your Caucus location. For our precinct, it will be at:

Location: _____ Address: _____

Idaho Republican Presidential Preference Caucus March 2, 2024 - 12pm MST/11am PST

Information Sheet for Republican Voters

As your Precinct Committeeman for our precinct, I am providing you with this information on the upcoming Presidential Caucus. If you need any information, please email or call me.

Name: _____ Phone: _____
Email: _____

Why the Caucus instead of a primary?

The legislature removed the March bond and levy election, also removing the March Presidential Preference Primary. The party was left to solve the problem and the Caucus gives the greatest number of voters the ability to participate.

Who can vote?

Anyone who was registered to vote in Idaho by December 31, 2023 and affiliated with the Republican Party. There is a special exception for those turning 18 between January 1 and March 2 in 2024.

Where do we vote?

The State party will send a card to every registered Republican household in February confirming your Caucus location. For our precinct, it will be at:

Location: _____ Address: _____

Idaho Republican Presidential Preference Caucus March 2, 2024 - 12pm MST/11am PST

Information Sheet for Republican Voters

As your Precinct Committeeman for our precinct, I am providing you with this information on the upcoming Presidential Caucus. If you need any information, please email or call me.

Name: _____ Phone: _____
Email: _____

Why the Caucus instead of a primary?

The legislature removed the March bond and levy election, also removing the March Presidential Preference Primary. The party was left to solve the problem and the Caucus gives the greatest number of voters the ability to participate.

Who can vote?

Anyone who was registered to vote in Idaho by December 31, 2023 and affiliated with the Republican Party. There is a special exception for those turning 18 between January 1 and March 2 in 2024.

Where do we vote?

The State party will send a card to every registered Republican household in February confirming your Caucus location. For our precinct, it will be at:

Location: _____ Address: _____

Idaho Republican Presidential Preference Caucus March 2, 2024 - 12pm MST/11am PST

Information Sheet for Republican Voters

As your Precinct Committeeman for our precinct, I am providing you with this information on the upcoming Presidential Caucus. If you need any information, please email or call me.

Name: _____ Phone: _____
Email: _____

Why the Caucus instead of a primary?

The legislature removed the March bond and levy election, also removing the March Presidential Preference Primary. The party was left to solve the problem and the Caucus gives the greatest number of voters the ability to participate.

Who can vote?

Anyone who was registered to vote in Idaho by December 31, 2023 and affiliated with the Republican Party. There is a special exception for those turning 18 between January 1 and March 2 in 2024.

Where do we vote?

The State party will send a card to every registered Republican household in February confirming your Caucus location. For our precinct, it will be at:

Location: _____ Address: _____

What to expect on Caucus Day?

Doors will open at 12pm MST/11am PST. Voters will show a valid ID and sign in. Sign-in will close at 1:30pm MST/12:30pm PST, but those in line will still be able to sign in.

Opening Ceremonies will begin at 1pm MST/12pm PST with candidate presentations and voting beginning at approximately 1:15pm MST/12:15pm PST. Those who do not wish to wait to watch candidate presentations may immediately proceed to the ballot line.

Your hand stamp will be verified and as you receive your ballot, a second stamp will cancel the first, showing you have received a ballot.

Once all voters have cast their ballot, the ballot box will be opened and ballots separated into candidate piles for counting. Results for the location will be announced at the end of the day, with final results being announced by the IDGOP later that evening.

For more information, please visit IdahoRepublicanCaucus.com or scan the QR code to go to the Caucus website:

What to expect on Caucus Day?

Doors will open at 12pm MST/11am PST. Voters will show a valid ID and sign in. Sign-in will close at 1:30pm MST/12:30pm PST, but those in line will still be able to sign in.

Opening Ceremonies will begin at 1pm MST/12pm PST with candidate presentations and voting beginning at approximately 1:15pm MST/12:15pm PST. Those who do not wish to wait to watch candidate presentations may immediately proceed to the ballot line.

Your hand stamp will be verified and as you receive your ballot, a second stamp will cancel the first, showing you have received a ballot.

Once all voters have cast their ballot, the ballot box will be opened and ballots separated into candidate piles for counting. Results for the location will be announced at the end of the day, with final results being announced by the IDGOP later that evening.

For more information, please visit IdahoRepublicanCaucus.com or scan the QR code to go to the Caucus website:

What to expect on Caucus Day?

Doors will open at 12pm MST/11am PST. Voters will show a valid ID and sign in. Sign-in will close at 1:30pm MST/12:30pm PST, but those in line will still be able to sign in.

Opening Ceremonies will begin at 1pm MST/12pm PST with candidate presentations and voting beginning at approximately 1:15pm MST/12:15pm PST. Those who do not wish to wait to watch candidate presentations may immediately proceed to the ballot line.

Your hand stamp will be verified and as you receive your ballot, a second stamp will cancel the first, showing you have received a ballot.

Once all voters have cast their ballot, the ballot box will be opened and ballots separated into candidate piles for counting. Results for the location will be announced at the end of the day, with final results being announced by the IDGOP later that evening.

For more information, please visit IdahoRepublicanCaucus.com or scan the QR code to go to the Caucus website:

What to expect on Caucus Day?

Doors will open at 12pm MST/11am PST. Voters will show a valid ID and sign in. Sign-in will close at 1:30pm MST/12:30pm PST, but those in line will still be able to sign in.

Opening Ceremonies will begin at 1pm MST/12pm PST with candidate presentations and voting beginning at approximately 1:15pm MST/12:15pm PST. Those who do not wish to wait to watch candidate presentations may immediately proceed to the ballot line.

Your hand stamp will be verified and as you receive your ballot, a second stamp will cancel the first, showing you have received a ballot.

Once all voters have cast their ballot, the ballot box will be opened and ballots separated into candidate piles for counting. Results for the location will be announced at the end of the day, with final results being announced by the IDGOP later that evening.

For more information, please visit IdahoRepublicanCaucus.com or scan the QR code to go to the Caucus website:

